I am the class of 1970. I am the school year of 1970. I am hidden in the hearts and minds of many. I am different things to different people. I am and always will be.

I am education and all it involves:
books, frustrations, effort, and achievement.

I am the vital part of many students —

the building agent for young men and women.

I am the activities of the abused underclassmen progressing upward, the active junior high, and the last year of the mighty seniors.

I am athletics. In me lies victory, defeat, disappointment, effort, determination, coaches, and fans.

I am student activities . . .

friends, fellowship, and fun.

Why am I called impassive?

In these pages we would like to show that teachers are really people. Mr. Sirk strumming at the guitar looks as if he is trying to play a D7.

Finding it appropriate to concentrate during a basketball game is Mr. Rodman.

Teachers Tend To Have Emotions, Too

During the Moratorium, Mr. Vaughn asked for the end of apathy.

Mr. Frisinger is shouting out orders but nobody seemed to be able to understand them.

An undescrivable look is on the face of Mr. Simon as he teaches a history class.

Student

Back again by popular demand, Mr. Avery read poetry to an attentive audience.

Student Activity Day combines entertainment with education. The teachers take a back seat and learn instead of teach.

Interest Day Offers Variety Of Programs

Many programs were offered this year to cover the many interests of the student. The programs ranged from "The Sandbox" to a program about poverty in the U.S.A.

The Girls' Gymnastics team show their skills and explain the fundamentals of this sport.

Mr. Dougherty and Mr. Avery of the English Department contributed to the Student Interest Day by presenting plays and reading poetry. Mr. Dougherty's class acted "The Lottery" and "The Sandbox"; while Mr. Avery read poetry. The presentation broadened literary enjoyment.

The Jr. Hi. English teachers spend much time preparing their students for the annual Spelling Bee. This year's winner was Ka Sherburne, a seventh grade student.

All of the English teachers try hard to convert their students from traditional to linguistic grammar.

Nervous breakdowns and loss of inhibitions are by-products of speech class. Presenting an opinion is Norman Thomas.

Mr. Brayton spends much of his time working with individuals in special reading classes.

Library And Music Dept. Facilitate Many Students

Mr. Frisinger and Miss Siebold do a fine job in the Music Department of A.H.S. A new class offered this year was the Music Theory Course.

Mr. Frisinger has made many changes and initiated new ideas such as using pom-pon girls with the marching band.

The school librarian, Mrs. Houlton, assisted by Mrs. Mortoff, work diligently ordering books, movies, and helping students throughout the year.

Sandy Zerby presents a corsage to Susie Dygert, head pom-pon girl, in show of their appreciation for all her work.

Pep Band provides music for basketball games under the direction of Mr. Frisinger.

The Social Studies Department took an active role in national functions this year by participation in the Viet Nam Moratorium and April 22, Earth Day. Speeches and hand literature helped to inform students on such matters.

Local and state politicians came to A.H.S. to explain the functions of state and local politics. Bill Selman spoke on his views as a local liberal politician. Mr. Rausch and Mr. Adair spoke on their positions concerning national affairs.

Mr. Dygert is explaining the bisector theorem to Trig students.

A course added to our Science Department this year was Advanced Biology. Individual study was the activity of the class. Breeding fruitflies is Jim Holse.

Advanced Biology students spend much of their time doing research and recording.

Science Is A Universal Question

Examination of a scientific experiment for results is done by Mr. Snyder and Fred Orten.

Science has many diversified areas of study. The curriculum at Angola includes: General Science, Physical Science, Biology, Chemistry, and Physics. The Advanced Biology class was started this year for students interested in a specific area of study.

The annual Science Fair gives scientific-minded students an opportunity to work on a project of their own choosing. Many Angola students have been given recognition in area competition.

Mr. Thalls is explaining how the next assignment is done to Debbie Burkett.

The business department added two new teachers to its force this year. Mr. Thompson teaches typing classes while Mrs. King is in charge of office machines classes.

A new room was also given to the department. The old coat-check has been converted into a classroom. Many machines have been purchased for the class.

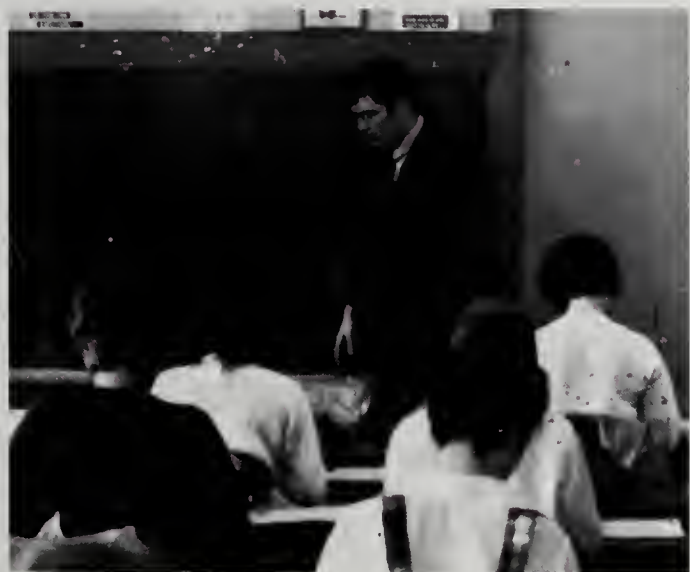

The business department now offers typing, shorthand, business law, math, and English, and office machines.

These students seem to be taking a break while Mrs. King is hard at work.

The typing rooms are always busy with students working on class assignments and projects.

A new teacher with the business department, Mr. Thompson teaches typing.

Meal planning is an important aspect to studying nutrition. Mrs. Trennepohl is explaining its importance.

The Industrial Arts Department has many tools and machines for the boys to work with.

Mike Meek is busy with his latest project. Beautiful tables, gun racks, and other items are made by the Industrial Arts students.

Patience and precision are required by the student for the best possible work.

Mr. Prosser studies the book before answering students' questions.

Doug Kersten and Barb Meyers assist Mr. Prosser in setting up the video-tape machine. Spanish plays and short stories were taped with the machine.

Without Our Janitors, Boy, Would We Be In A Mess

Although George works here when the high school students are gone, his time at our school is deeply appreciated.

The maintenance engineers are Bob Gebhart, Tom German, Les Shelton, and Carlton Erwin.

Carlton stands his lonely vigil at the choir concert.

Our janitors are always on hand for school activities.

After a hard night's work, Bob takes time out with the basketball team.

Discussing an undoubtedly serious subject is an extra for Mr. Fleming and Mr. Frisinger.

Helping the Jr. High students get ready for high school is a major part of Guidance Counselor Warmbier's job.

Guidance Counselors Offer Welcome Advice To All

The Guidance department has done a lot to help students plan for the future. Not only have they presented programs for the college bound student, but have done a lot in the preparation of vocational students. Because of the sudden change in graduation requirements the counselors helped many students graduate early.

Administration Works Together On School Planning

In order to keep a school system running efficiently, there must be an able administration. At Angola High School we feel that we have this. The School Board meets regularly throughout the year to make decisions concerning policy of the school system. Superintendent Mr. Floyd McCutchan continues to do a superior job for our school district.

Mr. John Hammel, after seven years as principal of Angola High School, will step down at the end of this school year. He will continue to teach in Angola and will also be our head basketball coach next year. Our thanks to Mr. Hammel for his outstanding work.

Assistant Principal, Mr. Harry Kelley, works with students and teachers to better relations between the two, and does an excellent job as Athletic Director.

Mr. Hammel has put many hours of work and planning into the betterment of Angola High School.

Mr. Kelley spends much time working as Athletic Director, as well as assuming duties as Assistant Principal.

The organization of the entire school system is the work of Mr. McCutchan, Superintendent of the Angola schools.

Members of our School Board are: Mr. Thomas Simons, Mr. Chester Lintz, Dr. Donald Mason, Mr. Robert Berkes, and Mr. Burdette Hall.

Haven't I better things to do?

Homecoming Activities Find Students In Olympics, Weekend Events End At Dance

Homecoming Queen Julee Nilson and her date Phil Sandidge are busy watching the festivities at the dance.

The tricycle race was one of the more interesting events that took place at the Olympics.

Couples at the dance listen to the winners of the afternoon activities during the band's break.

Some of the participants of the tricycle race had bad luck and ended up on the ground. Friends come to their rescue.

The Varsity basketball team waits for a surprise from Pep Club. Dara Maugherman and Rene Odle hold "Mr. Hornet."

Before the game, the crowd cheers with the cheerleaders.

Led by Karen Sanxter and Vicki Miller, Pep Club follows a chant.

Students Show Their Spirit By Joining The Fun

Senior boys like John Johnston, Rick Rensch, Tim Dirr, and Morgan Bowden show their school spirit.

Thespian Musical

Charlie, (Randy Plank), and Frank quarrel about who is going to win the shooting match that is to take place between Frank and Annie Oakley.

Money is needed desperately by Frank, (John Stevens), so he talks kindly to Mrs. Sylvia Porter, (Mary Hammel), who has plenty of cash on hand.

Charlie, Buffalo Bill, (Bill Lonsbury), and Sittin' Bull, (Bob Dahl), talk over the Wild West Show and Annie's welfare.

'Annie Get Your Gun' Provides Great Entertainment

Shooting ability is the topic discussed by Frank and Annie, (Patty Fulton). Annie argues that she can do better than Frank.

Christmas Prom, Sadie Hawkins

The Christmas Prom sponsored by Y-Teens proved to be a success. Many couples enjoyed dancing to the music of The John Frederick Trio.

King Terry Butz and his date, Cindy Brown, enter Castle Avalon while waiting for the introduction of King candidates.

One couple who appears to be having fun is Jim Hemrick and René Odle. The musical theme of the prom was "Love Theme from Romeo and Juliet."

Give Students Opportunity To Do Their Own Thing

Fun is the key word in Sadie Hawkins. The atmosphere is light and full of laughs in the hay covered room. Couples could wear their "grubbies" and enjoy dancing.

Taking tickets was the job of Chris Randolph. She also dressed for the occasion. The National Honor Society planned the dance.

After the Student Activities Day, students could get together and come to dance to the music of the A.V.C.R. Special entertainment was provided by Mr. Dougherty as he performed mock marriages.

Congressman E. Ross Adair addressed the junior and senior classes. He answered questions concerning the government and rights of the people.

Students Participate In

Interested students like Wynn Hensel asked about current events including water and air pollution, draft system, inflation, medicare, and the United States as a world power.

From a short review of Mr. Adair's career, John Schindler asks for reasons backing a viewpoint.

Government, Moratorium And Adair Comes To School

The Vietnamese War and pollution were two topics discussed to the entire student body.

Informing the students of the facts of air pollution is Terry Butz. Many other students gave environmental talks.

Seniors watched the planting of a tree on the school grounds. It didn't grow much that day though.

Morgan Bowden began environmental improvement by planting a tree. Other students also took part on April 22.

Students Felt The Urgent
Need Of A Clean Environment.

The End Of The School Year

Seventh Graders participate in the Junior High Spelling Bee.

We strive so hard to achieve — but why?

Thespians Work Hard For Another Successful Season

Thespian officers are: Patty Fulton, president; Val Banta, secretary; Miss Smith, co-sponsor; Sandy Day, treasurer; Sally Hammel, clerk; Karyl Hilton, vice-president; and Mr. Vaughn, sponsor.

"By Jiminey We'll Win" was the theme of the float built by the Thespians for Homecoming.

Thespian activities take on a wide scope of talents. For every play there is music, costumes, props, make-up, and set committees as well as the actors and actresses. The Angola Thespians have a blending of talents in their club which adds to their success.

This year the Thespians presented the musical "Annie Get Your Gun," "Arsenic and Old Lace" and the three one act plays, "The Monkey's Paw," "The American Dream," and "Utter Relaxation."

Eighteen students were inducted into the International Thespian Society. These students had earned their membership through their work with the Thespians.

Mr. Vaughn presented the Outstanding Thespian Award to Patty Fulton, president of Thespians, the star of "Annie Get Your Gun," and one of the all-time workers behind the scenes.

Grandma (Karyl Hilton) drools over the muscular physique of THE American Dream, played beautifully by Randy Plank.

At play practice, Rick Dygert and Bill Lonsbery show Dianne Willig the monkey's paw.

"Arsenic and Old Lace" involved many members of Thespians. Bob Dahl, Dianne Willig, Dick Powers, Ricky Dygert, and Kathy Rose are a few.

Frightened Abby Brewster overhears a discussion by Teddy, Mortimer, and Dr. Einstein in "Arsenic and Old Lace."

The one act play, "The American Dream," let the audience use their imagination through informal sets and props.

Student Council Makes School Year A Success

A jukebox, new dress code, Homecoming, and Student Activities Day were the highlights of the 1969-70 Student Council. All projects undertaken by the student representatives were for student body improvements.

Working through Lynn Smathers, President, Mr. Avery, sponsor, and the administration, the representatives tried to satisfy the needs of the students.

Steve Wagner and his date enjoy the festivities of the Sadie Hawkins Dance sponsored by the Student Council.

Student body president Lynn Smathers was in charge of the annual Homecoming. This year Homecoming was again successful.

One of the events in the Olympics was the tricycle race. Students participated or just enjoyed watching the fun.

Marching And Concert Bands Participate In Contests

Marching on the field led by Majorette Mindy Dygert, the Marching Hornets prepare for another half-time show.

Mr. Frisinger takes time out from his directing and arranging duties to practice his trumpet.

The Marching Band entertains the football fans from this formation.

With Much Success

Many new ideas were initiated by Mr. Barry Frisinger in his first year as head of Angola High School Bands. The use of Pom-pon girls with the Marching Band created a colorful addition. The band, led by Majorette Mindy Dygert, received a second place in the NISBOVA Marching contest. Plans are now being made to send the band to a five day training camp during the summer.

Mr. Hal Vaughn became known as "The Voice of the Band" as he announced all half-time shows and concerts.

The Concert Band was also proud of the excellent rating it received at the BOV Contest.

In addition to the regular bands, Mr. Frisinger also directs the Pep Band which performs at Pep Sessions and basketball games.

Mr. Frisinger spent much time preparing music and formations for the Band to use.

"The Voice of the Band," Mr. Vaughn, announces the next number of the concert.

Elaborate sets and decorations are designed by Miss Siebold. These props are part of the Christmas Concert.

The Girls' Vocal Classes are a large group of freshmen and sophomores with great musical potential. They entertain here at the Spring Concert.

A medley of Simon and Garfunkel songs was sung by the Menfolk and enjoyed by many audiences.

Choir Concerts Bring Good Community Response

The Jr. High Choir acted out "The Wizard of Oz" at the Spring Concert. Here the Lion sings to Dorothy, the Tin Man, and the Scarecrow.

Under the direction of Miss Nancy Siebold the Choirs again performed successful concerts. Many new ideas were tried such as the use of black lights for special lighting effects.

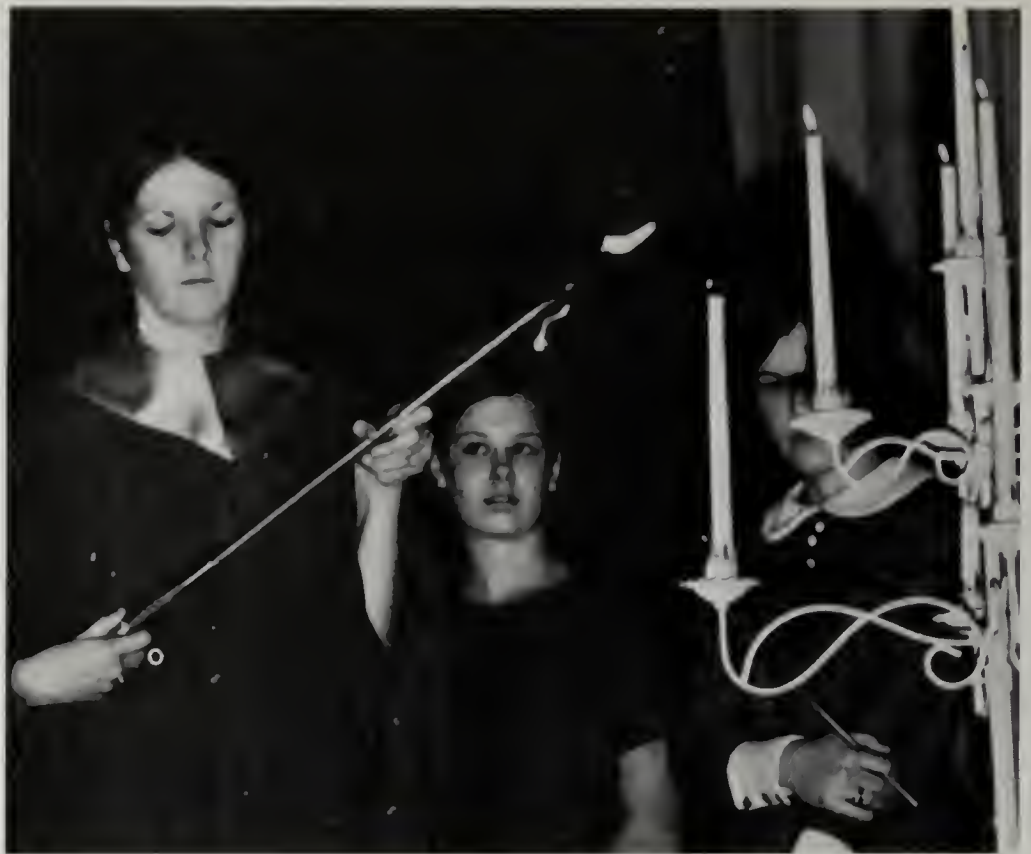

The High School Choir enjoyed singing popular tunes this year, many of which were arranged by Miss Siebold.

Special ensembles performed for various school and community organizations.

Both the Girls' Vocal Class and the High School Choir received superior ratings at the BOV Contest in April.

Umbrellas help act out the song "Raindrops Keep Falling on My Head" sung by the Swingals.

One of the annual activities of Y-Teens is the Christmas Candlelight Service.

Y-Teens Mix Work And Play For Productive Year

Y-Teens sponsor the Christmas Prom every other year. Much hard work goes into the decorations and planning.

Y-Teens offers girls in grades 10-12 the opportunity for service, friendship, and fun. Monthly visits to the county home were initiated by the service chairman, Jackie Stevens. Among the service projects were a clothing drive, March of Dimes Drive, UNICEF, food drive, and a Walk for Mankind.

Annual programs include the Christmas Candlelight Service, which is open to the public, the Senior Swing-Out, and the Pa-Ma-Me Banquet. The theme of the banquet this year was "Children's Stories."

Besides the officers the Y-Teen cabinet includes: Marcia Cummings, Karen Thomas, Cindy Brown, Debbie Summers, Mindy Dygert, Susie Goodwin, Jackie Stevens, and Val Banta.

Juniors involved in the Candlelight Service are Dian Franze, Kathy Ryan, and Ann Birchman. Singing Christmas hymns is part of the program.

Hi-Y, Art Club Offer

Officers for Hi-Y are: Terry Butz, Randy Plank, Steve Bruner, Kedric Beard, Rick Rensch, Mr. Lange and Mr. Wright, sponsors.

Hi-Y again had an active year. Their first project was the induction of new members.

As the annual community project Hi-Y boys gathered Christmas trees after the holidays.

A new and interesting experience was enjoyed by several members as they attended the Pre-Legislative Conference in Indianapolis. There the boys observed legislative procedures.

As their money-making project, Hi-Y members again sold candy. The profits from this sale will go toward the Christmas Prom next year.

The Hi-Y sponsored such speakers as Mr. Olin Dygert to talk at their meetings.

Many parents and students came to view the posters made by Art students on pollution prevention.

Services For School And Community

Many new projects have been initiated by the Art Club this year such as making and selling candles at Christmas. The Club also made all the sets for Thespian plays.

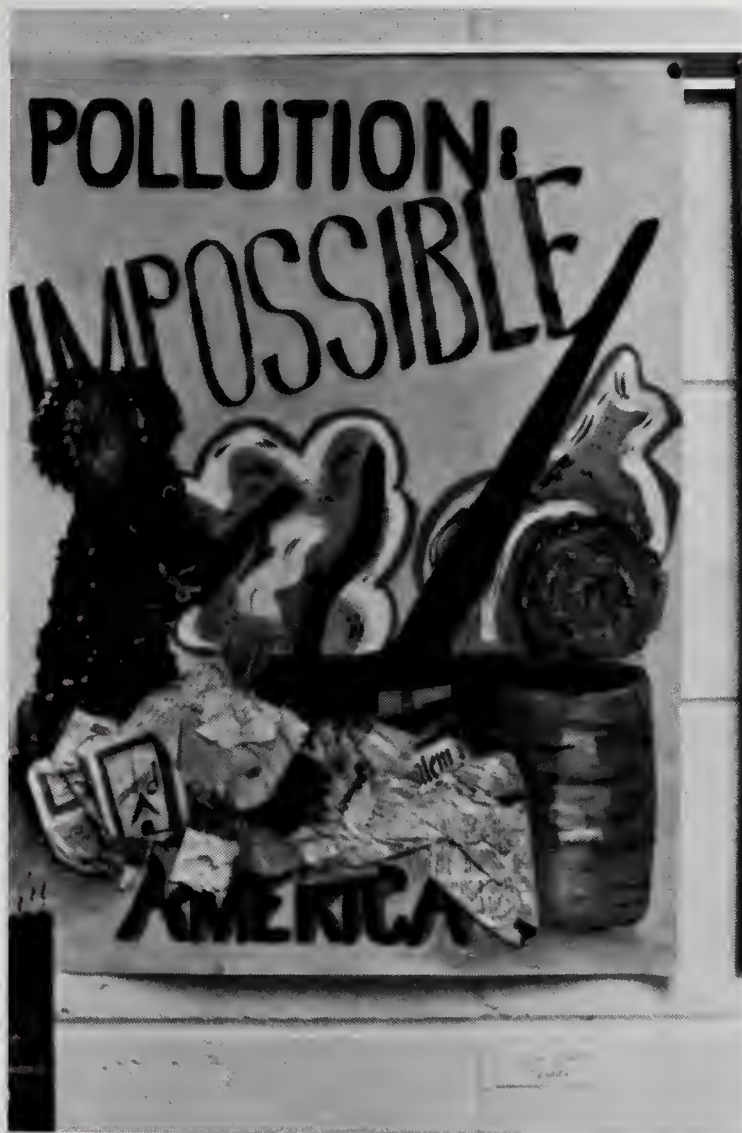

For Student Day, Art Club showed abstract movies made by several art students, and sponsored a talk given by Ray Condon, a local artist.

It was voted by the club that interested Jr. High students may now join Art Club.

Art Club hopes to take a trip to an art museum with the money they have made over the year.

The Art students spend many hours working on sets for Thespian plays.

One of the winning posters on pollution prevention is displayed here.

Debbie Coleman, Sandy Zerby, Claudia Chapman, Mr. Robinson, sponsor, and Kerry Brown are the Art Club officers.

With the help of Nancy Penix, Steve Wagner and Wynn Hensel wait on a customer.

Letterman's Club Honors Many Outstanding Athletes

Officers of Letterman's Club are: Terry Butz, Steve Wagner, and Larry Barnes. Mr. Sirk and Mr. Thalls are the sponsors.

The Letterman's Club has always honored outstanding athletes who have earned a major in any sport. This year due to the large participation in sports, the Letterman's Club has combined the three seasonal banquets into one banquet at the end of the year.

During the football season members of the Letterman's Club operate the concession stand at Hendry Park.

National Honor Society Sponsors School Dances

Decorating for the Homecoming is done by N.H.S.

This year National Honor Society became an active organization by sponsoring the Homecoming and Sadie Hawkins Dances. Much time was spent by the members decorating for the dances.

The National Honor Society also took part in a joint meeting of other area clubs at DeKalb High School in March.

Officers of National Honor Society are: Miss Siebold, sponsor; Terry Butz, Roger Eberhardt, and Patty Fulton.

Popcorn making and eating are the Letterman's speciality. Larry Barnes and Jim Hemrick work hard at it.

G.A.A. basketball team works together to improve skills. Some members are Pat Jarrard, and Gail Bumgarner.

G.A.A. Shows Contrast Of Grace, Chaos In Sports

Medicine ball is one sport played by G.A.A. Karen Sanxter, Vicki Miller, Pam Meyers, and Denise Chrysler are having fun.

G.A.A. offers the girls a chance to participate in competition. For the second time they demonstrated the skill and grace of gymnastics in a Student Interest program. Such sports as track, soccer, basketball, and softball are also included.

G.A.A. is an active organization because the girls compete in meets; and this winter they went skiing as a group, and were amazed to find out that skiing is hard.

Girls practice to perfect their routines. Jackie Hubler is working on the balance beam in a difficult position.

Form is one aspect of gymnastics. Judy Roth works hard to improve her position.

OFFICERS: Mrs. Jimmerson, sponsor; Julee Nilson, recorder; Mindy Dygert, president; Karyl Hilton, treasurer; Laurie Herl, vice-president; and Val Banta, secretary.

Led by the Bee Team cheerleaders, the Pep Club cheers for the Hornet basketball team.

Spanish Club Officers are: Mr. Prosser, Chris Randolph, Steve Bruner, Ingrid Dehn, Dennis Merillat, Mindy Dyger, Jim Spangle, Kedric Beard, Tom Nedele, and Bill Lipman.

Spanish Club

Sponsor Mr. Prosser scores two points for the faculty as they play Tri-State. The game was arranged by the Spanish Club as a money-making project.

Chaos is the attraction of the Spanish Club initiation. First the food is eaten, then it is thrown.

Works Toward Sending Students On Mexico Study Trip

Working on the prize-winning Spanish Club float are Barb Meyers and Doug Kersten.

Each year the Spanish Club sponsors such money-making projects as raking leaves, selling candles, washing cars, and sponsoring basketball games. The money received goes toward sending five students to Mexico for two weeks during the summer. The students are chosen by teachers from the membership of the club. When the students return they have a first-hand view of Mexican life which they share with others through films and lectures.

Students chosen for the 1970 Mexico Study Trip are: Ingrid Dehn, alternate, Doug Kersten, Barb Hutchins, Pat Orlosky, Nancy Sheffer, and LuAnn Eyster.

Foreign Language Clubs

French Club students practice the techniques of writing in French.

French Club officers are: Miss Smith, sponsor; Pat Meyer, vice-president; Bill Westinhaver, president; and Rosalind Arbuckle, secretary.

Sponsor Culture Oriented Activities

French Club became active this year by sponsoring a paper drive and selling flowers. The money went toward their club saving funds. They also held an initiation for all the first year club members.

The highlights of Latin Club for 1969-1970 was their annual Roman Banquet. Members were invited to attend this banquet only if they dressed as the Romans did. The club also participated in the Homecoming Float Contest and WOWO Penny Pitch.

While distributing maps of the Roman territories, Mrs. Warmbier reviews the Latin lesson to herself.

The Key

While working on the Hornet, Mrs. King, Terry Butz, and Dennis Merillat discuss the pictures to be used in the newspaper.

And Hornet Represent School Through Publications

Each year members of the Journalism classes publish the high school newspaper. The Hornet has become more complex and expensive during the past years. Because of this, this year co-editors were chosen instead of an editor and an assistant editor.

This is the last year the Key will be published by a staff of interested seniors. From this time on, the yearbook will be edited and published by students who are selected by Mr. Servis. These students will then work on the Key as a class and have some supervision at the same time.

As the year progresses, more questions arise concerning the yearbook. Larry Anderson and Mr. Servis solve the questions.

Cathy Munn learns about the unteachable problems of teaching through experience.

Exploratory Teaching, F.T.A. Prepare Students

FTA OFFICERS: Anne Birchman, president; Tracy Counterman, treasurer; Marcia Cummings, secretary; Mrs. Shubert, sponsor; Dan Hoffman, vice-president; and Barb Carr, parliamentarian.

Exploratory teaching offers to students that chance to gain experience in teaching. It also helps to arouse interest of students for the teaching career. Not only do the students learn but they enjoy.

F.T.A. is an organization for interested students in teaching. They do many extra things that professional teachers would like to have done when they were young.

Teaching Spanish, Lynn Smathers shows a different means of communication.

Chester is being helped in his reading as Larry Anderson listens to a hot rod story.

The football team won more games this season than any previous season. With a small and inexperienced team the Hornets played like pros and won six games. The defense, led by Terry Butz, Larry Anderson, Kedric Beard, and Randy Plank, had half of the tackles. Offense, led by Jeff Ott making almost 1500 yards and Tom Bledsoe an all conference tackle, helped the Hornets win six games.

Quarterback sweep was a big gainer for the Hornets. The offense blocked at the line and gave Smathers plenty of running room.

An inexperienced but powerful varsity defense moved at the snap of the ball to stop the carrier.

Bee-Team showed promise although they had a disappointing season. Effort by the defense stops a De-Kalb attack.

As sports fans anticipate future winning teams, junior high coaches build and instruct to prepare for the future. The winning spirit is at its peak among junior high boys as they fight to win. The fundamentals must be learned to be more skilled during high school days.

The eighth grade football team was coached by Mr. Thalls. They enjoyed three victories and suffered one loss. Their classmates look for a strong freshman team. Mr. Dean Harter coached the seventh grade. Their season was not so bright. They suffered three losses, but are looking forward to a better season in 1970.

Determined Squad Has Solid Starters, Hopes For More Back-Up Men

Junior Wayne Steele was consistently the number one runner followed by Junior Norman Thomas and Freshman LaVon Stomm. Doug Franze was the only Senior member so the team should be strong next year.

The team placed 5th out of 7 teams at the Lakeland Invitational, and 9th out of 10 teams at the NEIAC Conference Meet. They traveled to Elkhart for the IHSAA Sectional Meet and placed 16th out of 19 teams.

Hornets Suffer Many Setbacks As Young Team Hopes For Better Season

Hornet Tom Bender did a good job of rebounding as did a lot of other Juniors who show potential for next year.

The Hornet basketball team suffered one of the worst records in its history by winning only one game the entire season. The team was small and many younger players often had to be used. The experience gained by the young players should assure a brighter future for the Hornets.

The highlight of the season was the sectional game played with Hamilton. After leading the entire game, the Hornets ended up losing by two points.

As the shot is taken, Junior Bill Lonsbury tries to get around his man and into a new position.

One of two Seniors on the team, Lynn Smathers shoots while being heavily guarded.

All on the court are alert and ready to retrieve the ball which is being tipped by Hornet Dick Powers.

Leading wrestlers on the team were Morgan Bowden, John Johnson, and Terry Shumaker. Alan Fanning and John Nilson, both freshmen, were also outstanding wrestlers.

Eight team members were Major Letter winners while six others received participation awards.

Senior member, and captain of the squad, Ralph Holman shows great strength on the rings.

Young Team Builds For The Future

The High School Baseball Team finished the season with four wins and eight losses.

In the NEIAC Conference standings, Angola tallied two wins and seven defeats. The boys worked hard but seldom could keep the lead or rally for winning runs. Individual efforts helped, but were never enough for a win.

Whether at the plate or in the on-deck circle, both batters seem ready for the pitch.

Track Boys Work Hard At Rebuilding The Team

The Angola Track Team suffered a disappointing season winning no meets. They did, however, work hard toward building strong future teams. The freshmen, sophomore, and junior members of the squad show great ability and potential.

Seniors Bob Dahl, Rick Dygert, John Johnson, and Lynn Smathers scored most of the team points, but never enough for a win.

Mark Bowden is hard at work practicing on the low hurdles.

Distance runner Wayne Steele puts forth a last surge as he nears the finish line.

Golf Team Has Good Season With Experienced Squad

The Golf Team was one of the most successful athletic teams at A.H.S. this year. The team enjoyed nine wins and suffered only three losses. Jim Hemrick and Dave Rowe were medalists for Angola at most meets.

Angola placed sixth in the conference and first in the sectional. The sectional golf team consisted of Dave Rowe, Jim Hemrick, Larry Barnes, and Greg Branning.

Dave Rowe was chosen Most Valuable Player this year.

I am effort, apathy, education, respect, friendship, disappointment, achievement, pride, happiness, and sentiment.

I am the memories each student holds; never to be forgotten.
I am only what each individual makes me. I am the class of 1970.

June 1, 1970

Readers:

Creating a yearbook that reflects a particular school year is full of frustrations, sweat, tears, short tempers, hard work, and a great deal of satisfaction when the job is complete and out of our hands. This year's annual brings to a close not only a school year, but a long and honored tradition of the yearbook publication being a senior class activity. Next year's publication will be the work of a yearbook class which will be open to sophomores, juniors and seniors. We wish them luck in their endeavors!

The Staff of the 1970 KEY hope that you find our efforts as rewarding as we found our time spent on this publication. We only ask that you be tolerant of our mistakes and appreciative of our accomplishments.

Rather than thank every individual who helped to make this book possible, we offer our thanks to all who spent so much of their time in the KEY office working to make their final senior project a success. To all other staff, faculty, and school body personnel who helped us along the way, we also add a sincere 'thank you.'

Sincerely,

The Staff
